MEMBER NEWS

7.00pm start for Choreo practice

Showmanship

Over the next few weeks we are going to be working at a blazing speed to get ready for the show. To get through this with the least stress please review your choreo at home on all the songs we will be performing. Do not just wait for Wednesday night to work on performance if you do the chorus will not be able to move forward and we will be covering the same things each week. Come to chorus prepared, just like you do if you are ready to do a riser on a new song. If you are not sure or feel you need extra work please contact your group leader to organise one on one or small group work either before or outside of chorus time. If you need to, create your own video to watch at home, this can be done on most phones these days.

Please be proactive in your own learning and being up to date and performance ready.

On 1 August the chorus will be videoed and members will be individually evaluated on the up tune choreography.

Di

Don't forget to look at the video of Vicki demonstrating the choreo for It's a Pity to Say Goodnight which, thanks to Deborah, is now up on YouTube

Lyn and Cheryl are organising another Hunter Valley Winery Extravaganza (3 of the finest wineries) that will cost you only $50/person. Morning tea, champagne and lunch will be provided. Book it in for 22nd September.

"SEASONS OF LOVE" - TICKETS

Ticket sales are now open for "Seasons of Love" – via the following link.

<http://www.theconcourse.com.au/event/circular-keys-chorus-presents-seasons-of-love>

We will not be advertising this to a wider audience for a weeks or so, to give Chorus members, family and friends the opportunity to secure the best seats.

For our show to be a rip-roaring success it is up to all of us to take ownership of this event. It will be so exhilarating to perform to a full house!!!

With many thanks to Heather, Malcolm Brown's article on the Chorus could well appear in next Saturday's SMH. Malcolm has said that the photos are "beautiful". Of course, nothing is guaranteed, so stay tuned.
