McDonalds Performing Arts Challenge results

We're happy to report that, after being placed second in one of the Eisteddfod challenges, Circular Keys Chorus made it into the finals of the McDonalds Performing Arts Challenge, and had a great time competing with Sydney's finest on Saturday 28th June.

Soulfood A Cappella upped the ante and took away the prize, although not without some terrific competition from the likes of The Cor and the teen chorus Ascham Canzona. It was a great experience to be on stage again and to continue refining our performance as we prepare for Nashville.

Our favourite male a cappella chorus, Sydney Harmony, will be holding their annual Voices @ Norths concert at North Sydney Leagues Club at 2pm Sunday the 2nd August. Circular Keys Chorus is looking forward to singing some old and new favourites on the risers in their support. For more information, visit their website, www.sydneyharmony.com.au

Our Annual Show - Tickets now on sale

Last and definitely not least, we hope you will support our own annual show, to be held this year at the SHORE school in North Sydney on the evening of the 22nd August. Tickets are available via our website <http://www.circularkeys.org/dbpage.php?pg=Show>, where you'll also find an information sheet to answer any questions you might have. The Show Team have been busy putting together a variety of acts to entertain you, and it promises to be a very enjoyable night out for all the family.

Speaking of the Show Team, our chief cook and bottle washer Carolyn Watt is seeking eight volunteers to assist in a variety of essential tasks, such as manning the box office before the show, selling raffle tickets before the show and at interval, managing the canteen at interval, and dispensing food and drinks to the Preparatory School Choir. If you think you can help, please call Carolyn on 9876 3266 or email carowatt@ozemail.com.au.

This will be our last public appearance before Nashville, so we look forward to catching up with you all on the night!
