

In This Issue

- Lovely Lingerie
- Award Winner 2009
- Nashville Update
- Future Events

Upcoming Events

Saturday 13th June –
Lingerie Party

Sunday 2nd August –
Voices@norths Concert

Saturday 22nd August –
Chorus Show

Contact Us

www.circularkeys.org

To subscribe or unsubscribe to our Friends email list please visit our website Mailing List page at <http://www.circularkeys.org/dbpage.php?pg=newsletters> and follow the instructions.

Lovely Lingerie

Please help us with our Nashville Fundraising and join us on Saturday 13th June, when Carolyn Watt opens her beautiful home at Cheltenham for an event that gives new meaning to the phrase 'Nashville or Bust'. Intimo Lingerie (www.intimo.com.au) will be showcasing their latest collection of lingerie and travel wear as well as providing professional bra fittings. There will be two sessions, 1-3 pm and 3-5 pm, and items may be ordered on the day with payment by cash, cheque or credit card. Bring your friends and partake of our elegant afternoon tea ($5 charge) while improving your profile at the same time! For further details and bookings (essential), please phone Carolyn on 02 9876 3266, or email her at carowatt@ozemail.com.au . RSVP by 10th June please.

Doris Ward Award Winner 2009

Congratulations to Rosemary Champion, who was the well-deserving recipient of the Doris Ward Perpetual Trophy for 2009. Rosemary is shown here accepting the award from Doris, who is the chorus' founding Director.

Nashville Looms Large

Only nineteen weeks remain before we wing our way to the States, and our calendar is full! Preparation for the trip to St Louis and Nashville is hotting up, and our latest coaching weekend with the American Sweet Adelines luminary singer and coach Diane Huber really added a 'zing to our sing'. We feel so fortunate to be going to St Louis and sharing the stage with our sister chorus The River Blenders, under Diane's directorship. Wow! is the only word for it. Those members who are unable to travel to Nashville continue to offer their unstinting support and enthusiasm, as do our 'Ooters' (Sweet Adelines Out of Towners competing at Nashville as part of our chorus), who travel long distances to stand and sing on the risers with us. We're very grateful for their dedication.

Upcoming Events and Shows

The chorus has a number of performances coming up, singing on both the 16th and 20th June at the McDonald Performing Arts Eisteddfod (we'll do our darndest to also sing on the 28th, at the finals of this competition). Sunday the 2nd August is another date to mark in your calendar, when Circular Keys Chorus will be joining in the fun at the Voices @ Norths concert, to be held at North Sydney Leagues Club at 2 pm.

Our annual concert will be at The Shore School in North Sydney on the evening of the 22nd August. We're looking forward to showing y'all how we've developed as a chorus, and hope to thrill you with our 'St Louis' repertoire. But wait – there's more! There will be a variety of other acts to entertain you, so bring your friends and family and settle down for a great night out. There's plenty of parking, and easy access to both bus and rail. Tickets are now on sale for $25, or $20 for concession holders – either email show@circularkeys.org or phone Carolyn Watt on 02 9876 3266.