'CKC On Air'

We've written the script, found a venue (Pacific Hills Christian School, Quarry Road, Dural), designed the posters (see the example on our website), and now we're polishing the songs and choreography.

The setting is a radio show that's broadcast in front of a live audience. Tom Sils, radio announcer, hasn't turned up and the show is about to start. Who will fill in for him, and where is he anyway?

Pictured: Kerry Wright, Linda Bacic and Anna Fouracre in the new chorus costume, which will debut at the Show.

Tickets are available by emailing tickets@circularkeys.org or phoning Di on 9634 1296 or Deborah on 9688 2481, or you can purchase them at the door (cash or cheque only). We're offering a special family deal: if you have more than two children, you only pay for two and the rest come free. And a special volunteer deal: if you join our team of volunteers (contact Di for more information), you can see the show for the concession price of $15.

New CKC members

We're delighted to welcome the following new members, who stayed with us after the Diva program and have met all the additional requirements for becoming full CKC members:

Leads: Leslee Edwards, Susan Kelly, Rachel Vassallo, Inese Kamenyitzky, Jane Oates

Baritones: Carol Wing-lun, Janice Emmerton-Didlick

Basses: Judith Bourne, Willie Stubbs, Janine O'Callaghan

New rehearsal venue

We've found a new rehearsal venue that has the acoustics, space and storage we need. It's the chapel at St Joseph's Convent in Chapel Lane, Baulkham Hills. Dover Hall at Mowll Village has been good to us, but the acoustics are too 'live' for rehearsal, and we've grown too big for the stage. Come and visit us in our new home from 7th November on.
