MEMBER NEWS

Please continue to make our prospective members feel welcome. They are very keen, and are working hard to become part of CKC, but still need all the encouragement that you can give them.

Remember that rehearsals for the month of November are at Macarthur Girls High. : 1-19 Macarthur St., Parramatta. Enter from Stewart St. NO SUPPERS

Everyone should be off paper for the new Christmas carol “All I want for Christmas is you”. Remember that if you are not, then the expectation is that you will stand off the risers.

Last week we had a most productive and enjoyable rehearsal. We worked in front of mirrors, and could see how we appear to audiences. For some, who have never worked this way before, it took us out of our comfort zone. By the end of the evening, however, most people met the challenge admirably. Heather will be back this week, and we will be challenged further. Working like this develops our confidence in performances.

Please continue to revise the Christmas carols listed below.

Just thought you'd like to know ...

We had a very enjoyable and profitable jewellery party. Thank you Alison for organising that with your friend, and thank you to the girls who helped on the day.

Our Christmas raffle is on again. There are some great prizes. If you have not yet been approached to sell tickets, you can always see Liz Vrhovsec first.

Liz also needs volunteers for the last Bunnings Sausage Sizzle of the year on Sunday 1st December.
