Secret Chorus Business

WEDNESDAY 19th JUNE, 2013

MEMBER NEWS

Vicki had definitely decided on the new interpretation of "What'll I do", and we will need to do risers again. Recordings can be made of this every Wednesday until 2nd July (remember school holidays are at the end of June. If you are going away then don't leave it till the last week).

A huge thank you to Bridie for taking on the challenge of our website management, and to Maria who is going to deal with the copyright management of future chorus music. We welcome Lyn Howells as our new Fundraising Chair, and thank Liz for the many years she has led the Fundraising Committee. She has done a superb job, and has given of her time so generously. This was best exemplified by her attendance at a Bunnings Sausage Sizzle while her first grandchild was being born. Thank you Liz, and enjoy your holiday.

Just thought you'd like to know ...

Notes have been sent to all of us of both Betty Clipman's and Karen Breidert's coaching. Print these off and read them. They are wonderful learning tools to help you be a better singer.

Deborah has also downloaded You Tube videos of the coaching sessions, and the latest choreo for "It's a pity".

Remember what Heather said to us last week : "There will be no choreo notes". The visual plan will be taught in early rehearsals on designated weeks. You can record the moves on your phones, or refer to the You Tube videos that Deborah has been kind enough to download. Learning the visual plan is up to you, just like the music. The best way to learn is to copy exactly what Heather does when she demonstrates the moves.

CKC will be involved in a concert, organised by Sydney Harmony on Sunday 29th September. Vicki would like all of us to be present and so is giving us plenty of notice. It will be held at Barker College. If you are unable to attend, could you let Vicki know ASAP. This will be an excellent opportunity to have some extra stage experience.

Coaching with Darlene Rogers will be here soon. She is a voice expert and will be coaching us in a totally different way. These are the arrangements for the weekend.
