Secret Chorus Business

2nd October, 2013

MEMBER NEWS

The chorus has committed to singing in the city for the Sydney carols on the 28th November. If you have not indicated your availability, please do that ASAP. We have also been offered another night in the city on the 12th December. Whether we take that gig depends on your availability, and whether we can get a balance of voices. This is a very lucrative gig ($1,000 I think) but we won't commit unless we have the numbers. Vicki and Judith will need to know this Wednesday if you are available. Please give it some serious thought.

Please pay for your chorus shoes ASAP so that when they arrive you can pick them up immediately. The cost is $75.

Trestle tables and clothes racks are needed for the Garage sale at Lorraine's house. If you are able to help with this request please see either Lyn or Ann.

Karen will be measuring us up for the new chorus pants. Wear pretty undies if you get embarrassed. This will be ongoing for a few weeks.

Just thought you'd like to know ...

I have sent an email to all chorus members with the information for the elections for the International Board of Directors. I have had quite a few responses, but not enough. Can you please send me your votes via email so that when we need to submit them to International I can do that without fudging numbers.

This is a reminder that we will not be rehearsing at St Joseph's in November but at Macarthur Girls' High.

Risers have to come down.
