Secret Chorus Business

30th April, 2014

MEMBER NEWS

This Wednesday is our AGM. It would be great if all chorus members could attend, as this is a very important day in the life of the chorus. According to our standing orders, you can only vote for the new Management Team if you are present at the meeting. No proxy votes are allowed.

All relevant documentation such as last year's AGM minutes and this year's agenda are on the website for you to look at before Wednesday.

Early choreo again this week.

Both Karen Tucker and Maria Priestley have sent out reminders to check your costumes and make-up bags before Sunday. If you have any problems with either your costume or your make-up, please see them this Wednesday.

Our business year is drawing to a close but I would like you to start thinking of some ways you can contribute to the chorus in the coming year. After Convention, everyone will be asked to put their name down for one or two committees. Our chorus is growing (yippie!) but this means that the Management Team and Committee Chairs need help in providing the services to the chorus. The chorus cannot function without these people but they need assistance in doing the job well. Being part of chorus life, not just through singing, can be a lot of fun and very rewarding. You can make life-long friends. If you would like to get an idea of the committees, a list of them, and the names of people who are on them this year, is on our website in Documents, then Who's who in CKC.

THOUGHT YOU MIGHT LIKE TO KNOW...

This is my last SCB as you will have a new Team Coordinator after Wednesday. Every TC puts her own stamp on this publication, but I hope my information and musings have been of benefit to you.

I would like to thank all the members of the MT for giving me such terrific support in my three years as TC.

This week supper will be provided by Pippa, Meg, Ann K., Judith B.
Hospitality is Pippa and Inese.

Risers can stay up. I had a phone call this morning to tell me this, but then things may change between now and Wednesday night.
