“The magic of song lies not in the communication of sound but rather in the sound of communication. Though in barbershop we sing vowel to vowel, the passion of a song lies in its consonants” Lori Lyford, Scottsdale Chorus

MEMBER NEWS

The concert on the 29th September at Barker College is starting at 2.30. The venue is the Rhodes Theatre in the Kurrajong Building. This theatre holds 260 people. Admission is by a gold coin donation. This will be the only time that your family and friends can see you perform this year. Some of the Harmonics will also be performing some of the songs with us. There is no graduation concert, so this will be it.

The Fundraising Committee is asking for donations of goodies that can make up raffle hampers. If you feel generous, please bring it along on next Wednesday or the one after.

Rehearsal on Wednesday will be in the Chapel. Please try to be earlier as the risers will need to be moved and then set up there. This will take longer than usual.

In future, when putting up risers in the Pacifica Room, could those doing so please make sure that the risers are as far back as possible to the back wall. Hopefully this will solve the problem of the Aircon blowing directly at people standing on the last and second last riser on Vicki's left.

On Wednesday 18th September CKC will be visited by Paula Davis from International Faculty

Just thought you'd like to know ...

Jo Brice has come down with whooping cough. If you have had a persistent cough or flu symptoms that simply won't go away, you should go to your doctor and make sure that you don't have whooping cough. In adults, whooping cough generally doesn't have the "Whoop" in it.

CKC is performing "Fireworks" at Crestwood Fair on Sunday 15th September at 7pm. Please sign up for this event. It is usually attended by about 10,000 people. As CKC has sponsored the "People's Choice" award for Crestwood Idol our name appears on the promotional flyers going out in our drawing area. This is fabulous publicity and promotion of the chorus, and it may encourage others to join us. Let's show them what we are really made of and do ourselves proud with both the performance and attendance.

RISERS COME DOWN.
