MEMBER NEWS

There are still a number of girls who have not indicated their intentions for retreat. If you could let me know ASAP that would be great as St Joseph's are needing our numbers earlier because they have other parties that want to book accommodation. We have first choice of rooms. All the Ryan rooms have gone. I will bring new lists this week for you to check that I have all the correct information about your stay. Beside your name will be the cost of your stay.

Members who are intending to go to Convention, please register on-line as per Di's email. It's easy to do and saves both Di and Cathy an enormous amount of work.

If you think you might know someone who would be interested in a stall at Harmony Bazaar please let me know ASAP so that I can send the relevant information. The hall where the Bazaar will be held is huge, so we need to ensure all available spaces are filled. CKC is responsible for organizing Harmony Bazaar at this Convention and for this the chorus will receive a grant of $1000.

Please ensure that all outstanding fees etc. are paid promptly so as not to jeopardize your “good standing” in the chorus.

Vicki has sent an email about providing individuals with PVI’s during the warm-up sessions on a Wednesday. What a wonderful opportunity this is to get tips on how to be a better singer from a helpful and friendly member of the Music Team.

The Music Team will also be working on different mass sing songs at the end of rehearsals. This week it will be “My country”.

Just thought you’d like to know ...

This week supper will be provided by Barb M., Liz van M., Steph W., Meg H. Hospitality Team Leaders are Inese and Pippa.

Risers have to come down every Wednesday until the 26th February.
