COACHING – LYNDA KEEVER

Traveling, coaching, teaching, singing, performing and making friends. That's Lynda's definition of a perfect life, and that's what she's having right now. She's turned her years of early musicianship (including church choirs, community musicals, playing in bands and performing), together with her barbershop, into an interesting, exciting livelihood. Formerly a lawyer, Lynda managed to cut the ties to corporate America and now does music for a living.

Lynda is the lead of the 2008 Sweet Adeline International Champion Quartet, Four Bettys and a former member of Melodeers Chorus (having won 5 of the 7 gold medals with the chorus). She's a Certified Music Judge, a member of the International Faculty, and a Master Director.

Her mission: To help singers find joy in their music and grow to reach their goals.
