How are you and your buddy going?

Look for your buddy every Wednesday evening and ensure she is next to or near you on the risers. By now you should be keeping in touch on a weekly basis. Please maintain contact with your Bella between rehearsals to make sure they're doing OK. Talk to them about getting through the maze of everything they have learnt so far and their practice. If you're going to miss a rehearsal you can still send them an email or text in the interim. Remember our aim is to have some of our Bellas opting to join us on a more permanent basis once the course is over. Your response to them will have a huge impact.

Housekeeping

A few housekeeping duties you and your Bella can be involved in, along with everyone else is to remember:

- Leave mobile phones on silent or off during rehearsal.
- No humming! (Easier said than done with our Bellas taking note of pitch pipes and wanting to get the correct note first time but we can show them by listening intently).
- Be on time! There is so much to get through each night, we don't want to miss a minute.
- Make dismantling the risers your first priority at the end of rehearsal
