the thing about singing in a chorus ... when you are a part of something bigger than yourself, it is so easy to rest back a little and feel that carrying just enough of your part is enough ... but here is the thing - if everyone does that, subtly the momentum of the chorus suffers. .. and soon, increasingly, people think it's acceptable to miss rehearsals here and there, or show up half prepared and lean on others. it happens in every group ... yes, EVERY group - don't try and deny it it is a slippery slope for even the most dedicated of choruses.

no matter the size or calibre of your ensemble, you are better to carry the unshakable feeling that the chorus culture and habits depend on YOUR reliability alone ! .. if not you, then WHO?
... we ALL must be heroes ...

make it worth while. if you spend your time, make the most of it ! .. give more than is requested - learn that music a week earlier than expected .. learn more than one part

12 October 2016

.. do something EXTRA without being asked ! ... worker smarter - and even harder ..
your reward is integrity.

this builds culture and a healthier climate for everyone! esprit de corps is what it is ALL about.

the more you give, the more you get. it is in the giving that miracles and magic live.
who doesn't want that?

so, how else does one become magnificent? is it the director's responsibility to make it happen FOR you? ... your section leader makes it happen FOR you? .. on the back of your membership card, does it say "this is somebody elses chorus. i just sing in it"

if you want to grow, start digging in more deeply. help yourself. .. better yet, explore the joys and benefits of being of service to others ! everyone has SOMETHING to offer ...

so, consider this mantra "if you are part of something bigger than yourself, then for goodness sake, ACT like you are bigger than yourself !

.. and remember, as carlos santana says .. "there is nothing more contagious than enthusiasm"
