

Circular Keys Chorus Inc. Director/Chorus Agreement

The following is agreed between the Circular Keys Chorus Chapter of Sweet Adelines International and Vicki Dwyer, Musical Director, from 1st July 2018 to 30 June 2019.

Musical Director's Letter to Chorus

I, Vicki Dwyer, agree to serve as the Music Director for the Circular Keys Chorus Inc.

I understand my duties to include:

- Teaching and training members in the singing of four-part harmony, barbershop style.
- Attend all regularly scheduled Chorus rehearsals, except in cases of emergency or necessary absence. Giving as much notice as possible to the Team Coordinator, if absence is necessary.
- Teaching and training the Chorus in four part harmony barbershop style singing and providing a minimum of two hours of rehearsal time at each regularly scheduled rehearsal.
- Being responsible, in consultation with Music Staff, for determining a plan for each rehearsal and amending the plan as required.
- Appointing and assuming responsibility for training a Music Staff, consisting of Assistant Director(s), Section Leaders and Choreographer(s), as required. Appointments are to be ratified by the Management Team. This Staff will serve as consultants and specialists in designated musical areas and will assist the Director as required.
- Holding regular meetings of the Music Staff, representing the Music Staff at Management Team meetings and providing reports.
- Being responsible, in consultation with Music Staff, for selecting music and building a varied musical repertoire
- Being responsible, in consultation with Music Staff, for determining the musical qualifications of prospective members.
- Being responsible, in consultation with Music Staff, for determining the music eligibility of members for singing engagements, shows and competition.
- Directing the Chorus at all performances, Chorus shows (where appropriate) and competition.
- Providing a suitable replacement in the event I am unable to attend a Chorus rehearsal(s) or any of the above-mentioned events.
- Assuming or delegating responsibility for the following aspects of every Chorus performance: standing positions, music, program order, costume, makeup and emcee.
- Assuming or delegating responsibility for accepting or rejecting Chorus performance engagements in consultation with the Music Staff and Performance Coordinator.
- Making arrangements for Assistant Director(s) or others to conduct Chorus rehearsals and singing engagements when the Director cannot attend.
- Directing the Chorus, or nominating a replacement, in each competition for which the Chorus is eligible, providing all criteria for performing in competition have been met by the Chorus members.
- Cooperating with the Show Chair in planning Chorus shows, and directing the Show with the Assistant Director or others, as required.
- Consulting with the Choreographer and/or her Team in the planning of choreography, to ensure that it enhances the musical product.
- Attending Australian Region music and directors' schools, seminars, and competitions as designated for the year and approved by Management Team.
- Attending International Education (directors' school, seminars, competitions, workshops) each year, as recommended by the Musical Director and approved by Management Team.
- Promoting Chapter quartets and assisting them where possible.
- Assessing readiness of Chapter quartets for performing, using the 'Basic Criteria for Public Performance' found in Section VIII of the Chapter Guide.
- Consulting with the Team Coordinator immediately if problems arise that inhibit the Director's effective functioning.

- Expressing opinions and making suggestions to the Management Team concerning administrative matters that affect the musical area.
- Abiding by the International, Regional and Chapter Bylaws, and Regional and Chapter Standing Rules of Sweet Adelines International.

In return for my services I expect to receive:

- $135.00 for each rehearsal, 20% of chorus fee capped at $105 per paid performance including shows, $500 per weekend retreat and $250 per weekend day workshop. There will be no honorarium paid for free performances.
- Chorus learning tracks to be paid between $100- $200 based on invoice from Musical Director.
- Transport, room and board (actual cost) and registration fees, for all Regional and International events in which the Chorus participates; costs for Regional educational events; transport, room and board (actual cost) and registration fees to an International educational event per year.
- All costumes and accessories, including dressmaker's costs, to be paid by the Chorus.
- International per capita fees and Regional fees, paid by the Chorus.
- Waiver of all Chorus dues.
- In the event I must terminate my services, I agree to give the Chorus at least 30 days' notice in writing. I also understand that my services may be terminated for just cause, as determined by a majority vote of Chorus members, after 30 days' written notice from the Chorus Team Coordinator.
